

Welcome to Sweden!

International meeting in Uppsala, 24 – 31 August, 2016

Servas Sweden invites Servas members to join them for a week in the historic city of Uppsala. The number of visitors will be limited to 30 persons.

During the week we will visit different places of interest in and around Uppsala. There will also be social activities together with the other participants and local Servas members. You will stay with Servas families in and around Uppsala and there will be a full programme of activities.

You are also welcome to stay on after the week in Uppsala and visit other Servas hosts in other parts of Sweden.
